Andre is one of the most dynamic and powerful speakers I have ever known. He is also one of the nicest and most thoughtful individuals I have been privileged to meet. In my eight years in Toastmasters International, I have met a wide array of strong speakers and motivators, but Andre is the best. I still cannot believe my good fortune in finding him, by chance, really, and convincing him to join Newington's new Toastmasters' club. He has been a powerful asset to our club and a strong reason for its success so far. That he can help us out and still manage his business is remarkable; that he can deliver such powerful motivational messages and still improve each time out is almost unbelievable.
